

Providing a pathway of care
and support to meet the needs of each person.

A pathway to care

At Carmel Care, we believe that with the right support and care, anyone can live an independent life. Whether it is in their own home or through shared accommodation, with the correct services in place everyone can live life to the fullest. To ensure this, we have created a pathway of care which considers the needs of the individual, through a dedicated, tailored support package, a collection of services that cover a range of needs, and properties that offer comfort and convenience.

With every step of the journey, we consider the needs of the individual, ensuring their specific requirements are met through choice and control. Working together with each person, their families and their representatives, we create a personalised plan that ensures the correct services are in place.

Working with our partners to find the perfect home, our supported living approach gives each person security and independence to live a safe and healthy life. We encourage individuals to make their own decisions about how they choose to live and alongside our supported living services, we offer an outreach support service to people living in their own tenancies or at home with family.

Choosing the correct services for you

No two people are alike, which is why we provide a range of services to meet the needs of each person. Our services are divided into two core areas to ensure each person is on the path that is right for them – supported living or care in the community

Supported living

Carmel Care supports individuals with learning disabilities or mental health needs, who live in shared accommodation or self-contained flats. We can help with personal care, medication, finances, nutrition, work & college, as well as aid with accessing the community.

Care in the community

For those wishing to remain in their own homes, we can offer short or long-term care in the community. We work with local authorities to create bespoke packages of care; we have the capabilities to provide private care packages where needed; we can provide support with all aspects of daily living; and we can also offer respite to families, to allow for breaks from caring.
